

Collaboration Cycle for Planning

[Children's Ministry]

The Collaboration Cycle is a tool that will help you when working with others within your leadership group. Use it for long-range planning, activity planning, and/or yearly planning. Begin with a Focus Area and work clockwise. Remember that the final goal is in forming children as faithful disciples, so focus areas, goals, and strategies must be evaluated according to their fruitfulness in disciple making.

